

PROBATION CITATION DIVERSION

Los Angeles County Probation Department
February 20, 2013

Data From 6/15/12 to 12/31/12
Total Citations Received 27,196

The Diversion Process

Citations to Probation Screening and Referral

All citations for infractions and misdemeanors, which were formerly referred to the Informal Juvenile Traffic Court pursuant to section 256 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, shall be referred to Juvenile Probation. Locations in each Supervisorial District shall be developed to accommodate the family need.

DRAFT LOS ANGELES JUVENILE PROBATION DIVERSION

Referring Agency

• LAPD	6,774
• LA SHERIFF	5,466
• MTA	4,734
• LONG BEACH PD	2,358
• LA SCHOOL PD	886
• LONG BEACH SCHOOL PD	781

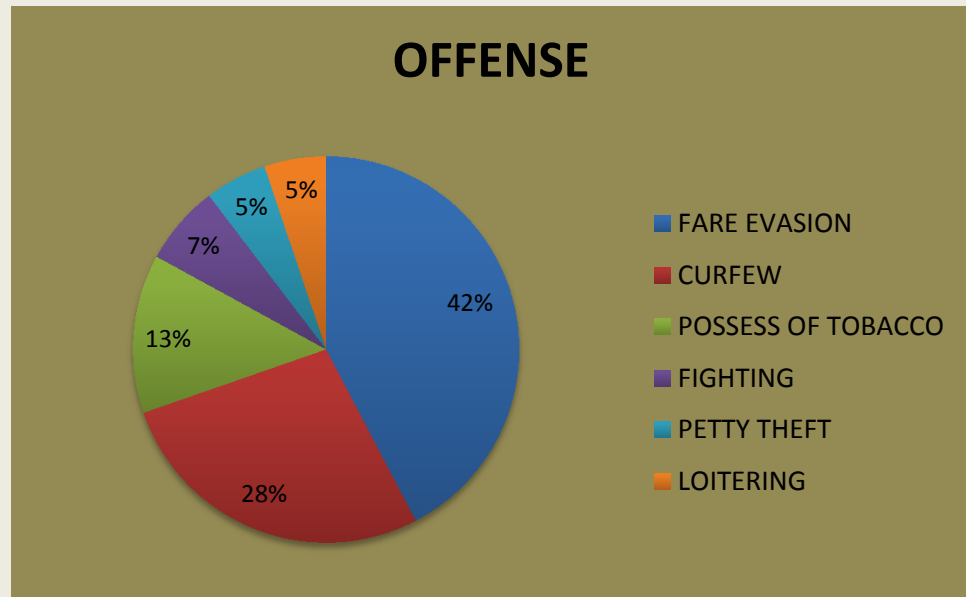

- Departments not listed under 700 referrals

CITATIONS

Referring Offenses

OFFENSE	TOTAL
FARE EVASION	7693
CURFEW	4975
POSSESS OF TOBACCO	2415
FIGHTING	1214
PETTY THEFT	941
LOITERING	942

Citation Population

Active Probation	2813
300 WIC	543
No Records	23840

Diversions and Penalties

Graduated responses in keeping with best practices regarding diversion is utilized.

Loitering

Curfew

Trespass

Vandalism

Fighting

tobacco

Community Referrals

- Teen Court
- Police Diversion
- School DPO
- Department of Children and Family Services (DCFS)
- Mental Health
- Community Based Organizations
- Mediation
- Restorative Justice

Active Probation Cases

Assess the referral and behavior of the minor; if minor is exhibiting positive behavior provide a sanction fitting the offense:

- Community Service
- Probation Diversion Program
- Referral to community based organization
- Day Reporting Center for period of time (Van Nuys Only At This Time)
- School based DPO for school program if appropriate

If minor is not performing appropriately on probation and documentation supports the decision, DPO may file a formal violation via a 777 with the DA and Court.

Active DCFS Cases

- DCFS Case Manager and Central Office notified of citation.
- Copy of Citation Submitted to Case Manager
- Diversion via Community Based Organization